

Third B.Physiotherapy Examination
Surgery-I
(General Surgery & C. T. Surgery)

Date : 05-07-2018, Thursday]
[Time : 3 Hours

[Max. Marks : 80

- Instructions : (1) Figure to the right indicates marks.
(2) Draw diagram wherever necessary.
(3) Write legibly.
(4) Use separate answer books for each section.

SECTION-I

1. Define Ulcer. How would you classify different types of Ulcers?
Describe etiopathology, clinical features and management of a patient with Gas Gangrene. (15)

OR

1. Describe etiopathology, clinical features and management of patient with hand injuries. What is the role of physiotherapy in management of patient with hand injuries? (15)
2. Write in brief (any three) (15)
- a. Carbuncle
 - b. Cervical lymphadenitis
 - c. Septic shock
 - d. Benign Breast lumps.
3. Write short notes on (any two) (10)
- a. Trans Urethral Resection of Prostate.
 - b. Blood Transfusion.
 - c. Hospital Acquired Infections.

SECTION-II

- Q.4 Discuss postoperative complications and its management in patient
who has underwent CABG. (15)

OR

- Q.4 Describe etiopathology and clinical features of tuberculosis. What is the role of surgery in management of patient with tuberculosis? (15)
- Q.5 Write in brief (any three) (15)
- a. Intercostal drainage.
 - b. Lung abscess.
 - c. Atrial Septal Defect.
 - d. Pulmonary Function Test.
- Q.6 Write short notes on (any two) (10)
- a. Extracorporeal circulation
 - b. Fibre Optic Bronchoscopy